

ENERGY TRANSITION: THE NEW PARADIGM

EU-RUSSIA ENERGY AND CLIMATE CONFERENCE

CONFERENCE DATE: 29 JUNE, 2017

TIME: 09:00 – 18:00

VENUE: GOLDEN RING HOTEL

ADDRESS: SMOLENSKAYA UL. 5, MOSCOW, 119121, RUSSIA

LANGUAGE: RUSSIAN/ ENGLISH

Conference objectives:

- Providing open discussion on energy transition and climate change trends and issues between representatives of EU and Russian authorities, expert and business communities.
- Focusing both on the global developments and the possible impacts of these trends on the Russian energy sector and national economy.
- Assessing technical, resource saving and environmental potential and cost benefits of the energy policy, focused on energy transition, in Russia.
- Analyzing technological, structural and policy challenges, barriers and opportunities.

PRELIMINARY AGENDA

08:30 – 09:00 Participant registration. Welcome coffee

09:00 – 09:10 Opening and introduction

Tatiana Mitrova, Director, Energy Center, Moscow School of Management SKOLKOVO

Elena Medvedeva, Director, Energy Institute, HSE

09:10 – 10:30 Opening Session 1.
Panel discussion: EU-Russia actions on energy transition and climate

Co-moderation by Tatiana Mitrova, Energy Center, Moscow School of Management SKOLKOVO and Ellen von. Zitzewitz, German Embassy

Panelists:

Alexey Texler, 1st Deputy Minister of Energy - tbc

Yaroslav Mandron, Director of the Department of State Regulation of Tariffs, Infrastructural Reforms and Energy Efficiency, Ministry of Economic Development

Sergey Esyakov, First deputy chairman of State DUMA's Energy Committee –tbc

Murad Kerimov, Deputy Minister of Natural Resource and Environment - tbc

EU Ambassador

French Ambassador

Kirill Komarov, First Deputy Director General, Rosatom

Alexander Liberov, CFO, Siemens LLC in Russia and Central Asia

Stéphane Zwiguintsow, Chairman of ENEL Russia

10:30 – 11.30 Session 2: Energy transition in the world

Co-moderation by Elena Medvedeva, HSE and Evie Ruymbeke Belgium Embassy

Bernd Biervert, deputy head of the Cabinet of Commissioner Sevcovic

What is energy transition and new energy paradigm?

Tomas Kaberger, professor, Chalmers University of Technology - tbc

Bert Stuij, Vice President Innovation, EDI

Launch of the Renewables 2016 Global Status Report

Christine Lins, Executive Secretary, REN21

11:30 – 12:00 Coffee break

11:30 – 12:00 REN21 Report press-conference for journalists (Russian and international media)

12:00 – 13.30 Parallel Roundtable 1. Companies perspectives on energy transition and climate: making energy business green

Co-moderation by George Kikelidgze, Chair Eurosolar and Stanislas Herion, French embassy

Eirik Wærness, Senior Vice President and Chief Economist, Statoil

Nikolay Rotmistrov, Siemens Power and Gas

Igor Bryzgunov, RAWI Chairman

Konstantin Romanov, Secretary in charge, Coordinative Committee on Environmental Protection and Energy Efficiency, head of unit, Gazprom – tbc

Evgeniya Devyanina, Energy and Resource Leader, Sustainability Department, IEKA Centres Russia

12.00 – 13.30 Parallel Roundtable 2: RES and new technologies potential

in the isolated regions in Russia

*Co-moderation by Elena Medvedeva, HSE and Ivo Stoel
Netherlands Embassy*

Speakers:

Technical, resource saving and environmental potentials of RES in Russia

Georgy Ermolenko, HSE

Renewable Energy in Off-Grid Settlements in the Russian Arctics

Alexey Kokorin, WWF

Michail Yulkin, Environmental Investment Centre

Developing a policy and regulatory basis bankable renewable energy projects

Louis Skyner, Denton Europe

Panel discussion: Opportunities and challenges for RES in the isolated regions in Russia

George Nozadze, Head of Strategy, Novatek - tbc

Roman Samsonov, Energy Centre SKOLKOVO

Alexander Vorotnikov, Regional Energy

Geert Greving, Head of Public Affairs GasTerra

Vladimir Parshukov, CEO- Donskie Technologii

Paul Logchies, CEO, Windlife

Maxim Karnaukhov, Deputy Director, Lukoil-Ekoenergo - tbc

*Vladimir Chuprov, Head of energy program
Greenpeace Russia*

13:30 – 14:30

Lunch

14:30 – 16.00

Session 3: Challenges and opportunities offered by energy transition for Russian energy and economic policy

Co-moderation by Tatiana Mitrova, Director, Energy Center, Moscow School of Management SKOLKOVO and Nikola Jovanovic, Italian Embassy

Speakers:

Russian economy and energy sector development prospects

Leonid Grigoriev, principal adviser to the head, Analytical Centre under the Government of the Russian Federation

Energy transition and digitalization – what could be implications for the electricity sector?

Alexander Starchenko, Chairman of the Supervisory Board, Energy Consumers Association

Panel discussion: Opportunities and challenges of the climate agreements for the modernization of the Russian Energy sector

Sergey Vakulenko, Head of Strategy, Gazprom Neft - tbc

Pavel Oderov, Head of International Department, Gazprom - tbc

Vladimir Drebentzov, Chief economist BP

Vasiliy Zubakin, Luikoil

Petra Opitz, Manager, Daten Management Service GmbH

Margarita Hoffmann, Wintershall- tbc

Igor Ignatiev, deputy CEO Shell Russia- tbc

Andrey Klepach, Deputy Head VTB - tbc

Oleg Lugovoy, Research Advisor, Center for Economic Modeling of Energy and Environment, RANEPa – tbc

16:00 – 16:15 Coffee break

16:15 – 18:00 Roundtable: Opportunities and barriers for decentralized generation in Russia

- What are the key driving forces for consumers to become prosumers?
- How providers of technology solutions and equipment manufacturers view their ability to enable new type of consumers?
- Are there any critical barriers for decentralized generation to successfully operate in sync with traditional centralized system?

Co-moderation by Alexander Starchenko, Chairman of the Supervisory Board, Energy Consumers Association and Kirsten Westphal, Senior Associate Global Issue, SWP

Alexey Khokhlov, Head of Power Division, Energy Center, Moscow School of Management SKOLKOVO

Oleg Barkin, Deputy Director, Market Council

Evgeniy Olhovich, Deputy Director General for Strategy, Rosseti

Alexey Pakhlakov, Head of Analytical Division STC UES and leading expert SO UES

Vladimir Demin, Director for energy, Evraz Holding

Vadim Geraskin, Director for GR, Rusal

Igor Golubev, Director for energy supply, Sibur

Yury Udaltzov, Deputy Chairman of the Board Rosnano

Oleg Shutkin, Head of “Ingeneering and Generation” branch, Havel Group

David Masgrangeas, General Director OOO Saft

18:00 – 19:00

Cocktail reception